The image shows a screenshot of a web browser window titled "Add Note - Microsoft Internet Explorer". The browser's address bar and menu bar are visible at the top. The main content area contains a form with the following elements:

- A section titled "Add comment." containing two input fields:
  - The first field is labeled "- Name."
  - The second field is labeled "- Email."
- A large, empty text area for entering a comment, with a vertical scrollbar on its right side.
- A button labeled "Submit Query" located at the bottom right of the form.
